CONTENT

The lessons will focus on speaking in an everyday environment.

Oral tuition: Students will follow interactive videos around the lives of French teenagers acquiring the facility to converse about general topics. The focus will then extend to the students themselves to develop their skills talking about themselves, school, their future, their hobbies. Ideal preparation for JC orals.

Reading Comprehension: Listening comprehension and grammar exercises will cover the more difficult grammar elements of the JC course.

Topical Discussion: General vocabulary on themes affecting younger students, and social media etc. will help the students develop vocabulary relating to typical exam comprehension and written questions.

Games: Role play and creative games will enable students develop confidence in structuring phrases in French

Culture: Students will delve into the aspects of French culture which will help them in document creation. It will also hopefully inspire them and broaden their cultural horizons. French movies, food, music will be explored.

Teacher: Siobhan Kelly, Owner and Manager of the Academy. Siobhan is an honours Masters graduate from Trinity College in French. She also won the French Government Scholarship awarded to the top, final year TCD French, student to prepare a post graduate degree in the Sorbonne, Paris IV, as well as being accepted as a “Lectrice Libre” at the prestigious École Normale Supérieure in Fontenay. She has lived and worked in France for over 8 years and has been teaching French to LC students privately and now more recently with the Academy in Dun Laoghaire.
